Surplus FAQ – Frequently Asked Questions

- ✦ What is the purchase price of the properties?
 - The minimum bid price for each of the properties is listed.
- ✦ Can they be purchased for a lower price?
 - NO. Purchase offers cannot be lower than the minimum bid amount.
- ✦ Can I get my money back?
 - It is possible your bid deposit can be refunded – LESS THE COST OF ADVERTISING if it has been advertised.
- ✦ How do you purchase any of the listed properties?
 - Anyone interested would place an initial Five Percent (5%) bid deposit of the minimum bid amount to start the bid process.
 - NOTE: IF the minimum bid is LESS THAN $1,000, the bid deposit will need to be the ENTIRE amount to start the bid process.
- ✦ How often is this list updated?
 - There is not a specific time frame for updates. It is updated when property is either added or sold.
- ✦ Are these houses, which ones have houses; is this a list of houses?
 - NO. This is not a list of houses or foreclosed homes. The properties may or may not have a structure. Bidder must use due diligence in checking the properties' circumstances.
- ✦ Are the tax values correct?
 - The values are listed from the most recent Cumberland County Tax Revaluation.
- ✦ Who can tell me about these if they have any other liens, how can I find out, and can you refer me to an attorney?
 - The County Attorney's Office Staff cannot advise nor assist on any purchases. NO, we do not have a referral list of attorneys. It is your responsibility to determine the status of the properties, as they are sold subject to all liens, judgments, easements and other matters of record. We strongly suggest that a title search be performed for any property prior to submitting a bid on surplus or any other property.
- ✦ What types of payments are accepted & who are they payable to?
 - Money Orders and Certified Bank Checks only payable to: County of Cumberland or Cumberland County. We do not accept CASH.
- ✦ How long does this process take?
 - There is not a specific time frame from start to finish; it could take up to 12 weeks or more.
- ✦ Can I set up a payment plan when balance is due?
 - No. Full payment is due at the end of process. We do not accept installment payments.
- ✦ If MY bid is upset, do I have to bid again?
 - NO. You can opt out and when the 10-day deadline is closed, our office will submit a refund request for your surplus bid deposit.
- ✦ Are there any other fees or costs?
 - Advertising fee is added to the final cost. Register of Deeds recording fee is $26.

Other Important Notes:

1. All offers are subject to approval and acceptance by the Cumberland County Board of Commissioners.
2. All bidders must be current on their own personal and/or real property taxes in Cumberland County before a bid or bid payment can be accepted on surplus properties.
3. All offers are subject to the upset bid process pursuant to G. S. § 160A-269 and notice of the proposed sale will be advertised in the Fayetteville Observer for one day and open for 10 days after the advertised notice.
